New Hair Growth

HAIR GROWN ON MR. BRITI'AIN'S BALD HEAD BY INDIANS' MYSTERIOUS HAIR GROWER

My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The scalp was shiny. An expert said that as he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth. Yet new, at an age ever 60. I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, justrous hair! No trace of baldness. The pictures shown here are from my photographs.

Indians' Secret of Hair Growth

At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, apecialists treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian "medicine men" who had an elixir that he asseverated would grow my hair.

Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial.

To my amazoment a light furs soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

That I was extonished and heppy is expressing my state of mind mildly.

Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, newsiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade.

I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for prenaring this mysterious clixir, new called Kotalko, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved.

Many men and women, also children, have reported satisfactory results from Kotalko.

How YOU May Grow YOUR Hair

My honest belief is that hair roots rarely die even when the hair falls out through dandruff, fever, excessive dryness or other disorders. I have been told by experts that often when hair falls out the roots become imbedded within the scalp, covered by hard skin, so that they remain for a time like bulbs or seeds in a bottle which will grow when fertilized. Shampoos (which contain alkalis) and hair lotions which contain alcohol are enemies to the hair, as they dry it, making it brittle. Kotalko contains those elements of nature which give new vitality to the scalp and hair.

PROVE FOR YOURSELF cost a how of the genuine Kotalko at a reliable druggist's $300.00 GUARANTEE with each box. A small testing box of Kotalko (with testimonials, etc.) may be obtained by sending ten cents, silver or stamps, to my address below.

G. O. P. Candidate Issues Ringing Call

Judge Charles R. Evans Dubs Littleton Factionist

Says Harding and Harmony Candidate Can Carry Tennessee

To All the Republicans | 0of Tennessee:

Governor, I led the fight against

On Thursday, August 5, 1920, for the first time in this state, you will go to the polls and select your candidate for the office of Governor. It is generally conceded that if you act wisely in making your choice, that the party will win in November. Five men qualified for the race. I. Charles R. Evans of Hamilton County, announced first, on April 17; then Hon. J. M. Littleton, on May 1; then Hon. A. A. Taylor, on May 8; then Capt. T. F. Peck, on May 16: then Mr. J. Q. Eaton, on June 1. Capt. Peck retired from the race on July 16. Mr. Eaton has made no fight further than to file his petitien. This leaves three of us from whom to make a selection, to-wit: Littleton, Taylor and Evans.

Littleton Spells Defeat

It is conceded everywhere that factionalism has been the evil of our party in the past, and that only a harmony candidate can win in No-Such being the case, to nominate the leader of one of the factions would be party suicide, and for ten years past the press of the state has been surfeited with the faction of Littleton, and how Littleton had defeated Senator Sanders, had sent Governor Hooper to the sticks, and was going to knock out Congressman Sells, had disciplined Congressman J. Will Taylor, and make political seros of everyone who was not for Littleton, for everything in sight and a little more besides. To nominate Littleton would by to put the party ship in the hands of a pilot who would steer straight for the rocks of disaster in November.

When at the Chattanooga convention in April, Mr. Littleton, then ocupying neveral posts of honor in the party, asked to be sent as a delegate at large to Chicago, I supported his ambition, but when I discovered that he was plotting to take the convention by surprise, and get the party to do the illegal thing of nominating or endorsing him for candidate for Governor.

Then the convention adopted a In this he runs true to form and bone dry platform, and I supposed cannot see anything incongruous in Mr. Littleton was out of the game, a wet mun on a dry platform. This A few days later I announced for drew the issue between Mr. Little-Governor, standing squarely on the ton and myself. Other candidates Then on May 1, Mr. Little- came in opposed to Littleton, who ton, factionalist and anti-probible drew upon my support, but all have tionist, announced himself as the retired except Mr. Taylor.

retired except Mr. Taylor.

I have made my appeal through the press, as I could reach thousands, where speaking in the short time of the campaign would reach only hundreds. I have flooded the state with my address, entitled "Littleton Froita Defeat," and have made the fight against him on two points first that he is the factionalist in the race, and the one meant by the use of that term by Capt. Peck, who has written me a letter confirming same; and second, that he is a wet man on a dry platform, and he ought not to burden the party with this load.

The Hon. A. A. Taylor

On July 12. Mr. Taylor addressed 269 voters in the Sunday Tabernacia at Chattanows. At 7 nm. just before he went there Mr. J. Frank Peck and awarf called on Mr. Taylor at la room in the Patter Hotel. and I told him about my efforts to defeat Mr. Linketon as a factonalist and rn anti-probibitionist and he said that was well know; throughout the state. I then asked him to bein defeat Littleton by calling attention to these facts in his speech that evening. This he refused to do. He left the whole breden of the fight to me. I attended his talk that evening and was highly entering he as a recount of how Mr. Taylor began radicted stumping for Uncoln and Johrson in 884 and had falked in every carries and municipal to New Orleans, and speech allowed the latter of New Orleans, and speech about a rold for hound called "Old Limber" Now this is the year of 120 and if we wie the state this year we can only wir with a fighter and not with an entertainer.

A Personal Appeal

If either Mr. Littleton or Mr. Taylor is nominated I will support them, but I feel that your "best het for a wir" in November is CHARLES R. EVANS and whether you like the or dislike me let ma lead your fight, and I promise you victory not only in the gubernatorial race, but we will break the solid South for Harding and Coolidge.

I know I am fighting a Littleton machine. I beat the machine where it worked best in a convention. Now, if you voters of the party will raily to the one man who did the fighting, is fighting, and wants to fight until November, vote for CHARLES R. EVANS for nominee for Governor, on August 5th.

CHARLES R. EVANS.

Judge Charles R. Evans

Judge Charles R. Evans, of Chattanooga, candidate for the Gubernatorial normalization of the Republican party in the primary election to be held August 5, is a nephew of the Honorable H. Clay Evans, long distinguished in Tennessee public affairs.

After completing his university course, Judge Evans was admitted to the har of Hamilton County and has attained high rank among the lawyers of the sizet.
